

There are 1220 Licensed Masters level mental health professionals in the State.
In 85 communities theses are the only local providers for mental health services.

More than 90% of the Psychologists in the State of Montana are concentrated around 6 communities.
There are less than 200 Psychologists in the State.

That leaves less than 20 directly involved in the rural and small town life of Montana.